Grande Denali Lodge and Denali Bluffs Hotel RiverView Awards

Anchorage, Alaska – The end of summer is a special time for Alaska's hotel properties, and this year is exceptional for the Grande Denali Lodge and the Denali Bluffs Hotel. The two properties and parent company Old Harbor Native Corporation received John Hall's Alaska Owner's Choice award for 2018 during the annual Alaska Travel Industry Association (ATIA) convention in Fairbanks in early October.

The Denali Bluffs Hotel RiverView at the Bluffs was named the Highest Rated Lodge Experience by John Hall's Alaska guests for the second year in a row. This award is a significant achievement, as it is based on reviews from guests who stayed at properties throughout the state. Tennale Wise, General Manager of the Denali Bluffs Hotel, said, "We are dedicated to making our guest experience the best in Alaska. It is a great honor to be recognized by our customers and John Hall's Alaska as the Best of the Best!"

Denali Hotel Properties -- Grande Denali Lodge and Denali Bluffs Hotel -- are open seasonally from mid-May to mid-September. The properties include 336 guest rooms plus 6 private cabins, the Alpenglow Restaurant & Lounge, the Mountaineer Grill & Bar, the Peak Espresso Stand and the Perky Moose Pantry & Café. The properties feature magnificent views of the surrounding areas from their natural settings on the slopes of Sugarloaf Mountain and offer special discount offers to members of the military, Alaska residents, members of AARP and AAA throughout the season.
